

THE SAHEL RESEARCH GROUP AND THE FEED THE FUTURE INNOVATION LAB FOR LIVESTOCK SYSTEMS AT THE UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA PRESENT

PASTORAL LIVESTOCK PRODUCTION IN THE SAHEL: RESEARCH ACTIONS AND PARTNERSHIPS

April 14 2021
10:30 AM-12:00 PM
Virtual event

This workshop provides an opportunity to learn about the CIRAD-SELMET initiative in West Africa and discuss recent research findings on the role of pastoral production in the region. There will be three brief presentations by colleagues at CIRAD and ILRI followed by Q&A sessions.

- CIRAD-SELMET : Partnership and Research Actions in the Sahel
by Guillaume Duteurtre and Ibra Touré
- (Agro)pastoral Household Economics in a Shock-prone Environment
by Abdrahmane Wane and Alioune Ndiaye
- Livestock and Dairy Value Chains in West Africa: Key Issues and Research Questions
by Christian Corniaux

This virtual workshop is open to all interested faculty and graduate students. For more information, please contact Dr Renata Serra, Center for African Studies and Innovation Lab for Livestock Systems at UF: rserra@ufl.edu